At school, students learn different subjects like English, math, art and so on. They learn these subjects in the classroom. These days, a new subject becomes popular in many schools. That is school gardening. Students learn it outside the classroom. It is not only an interesting subject, but also a great way to keep healthy.

In the gardening class, students can go outside and get fresh air. More importantly, they can learn a lot. When some young students have food, they always ask, "Where does the rice come from?" In this class, they can get the answer. And they can learn to do things with their own hands. They can also learn some teamwork skills and care about nature, others and themselves.

Keeping a school garden is difficult, but teachers are trying to make it work. Some schools can have gardens inside, but other schools are small, so teachers turn to gardens and parks near the school.

The school garden doesn't have to be very big. Students can have a lot of fun in it. At first, teachers decide(决定) what vegetables to grow. Then they grow them with students. Carrots and tomatoes are their favorite because they can eat them right in the garden. Some vegetables are easy to grow, but others need a long time. They can teach students hard work pays off.

Outdoor subjects like gardening are as important as any other subject. Students should learn it at school.

16. Which is NOT TRUE according to Paragraph 2(第二段)?
A. Students can go outside. B. Students can get fresh air.
C. Students never get the answer D. Students can learn some teamwork skills.
17. The underlined phrase "pay off" means "_____" in Chinese.
A. 有意义 B. 有影响 C. 有回报 D. 有变化
18. Teachers and students like to grow carrots and tomatoes because _____.
A. they are easy to grow B. they can eat them right in the garden
C. they can have fun when eating them D. they don't need a long time like others
19. What can we infer(推断) from the passage?
A. Most students don't like gardening.
B. The school garden must be big enough.
C. School gardening can be a great subject.
D. There should be more indoor(室内) subjects for students.

20. What is the best title of the passage?

- A. What We Learn at School
- B. How to Plant Vegetables at School
- C. A New Popular Subject at School
- D. Knowledge isn't Important at School
